

MEGNA, "JACKED" TO BE A MAVERICK

May 5th, 2010

Bensenville, IL

For Immediate Release:

As most kids scramble into various prospect camps and evaluation clinics in hope of catching that scout's eye for the upcoming USHL draft, Jaycob Megna is at ease. The 6'5 Megna recently accomplished 2 of his lifelong goals. After becoming the Muskegon Lumberjack's of the USHL first expansion tender he then turned around and verbally committed on a full athletic scholarship to play hockey for the University Of Nebraska-Omaha Maverick's of the WCHA NCAA D1. Megna is expected to hit campus in 2011.

Megna will play for the "Jacks" of the USHL starting in Sept. "My goals entering the year at TI was to solidify my USHL and NCAA paths," said Megna. "I am very pleased things worked out, I am extremely excited about Muskegon, I believe both Mr. Mervis and Coach Kevin Patrick will give me the best development possible to be NCAA ready" added Jaycob.

"Jaycob has turned a lot of head's," said coach Hull. "Jaycob is a legitimate NHL prospect and will be a star at all higher levels of play." Added Hull.

"Team Illinois is extremely proud of Jaycob's achievements and wish him all the best" Added President Jim Marchi.

"I would like to thank Both Coach Marchi and Hull for the time and effort they put into my development" closed Megna.

The entire Team Illinois Family would like to Wish Jaycob all the best

GOOD LUCK JAYCOB!
